A GREIVENCE.

ARDMORE, I. T., JAN. 1, 1894.

MR. EDITOR: For fourteen years

I have been grumbling to my husband.

Why not give the poor man a rest and regale (?) the ears of the public for a while. My latest grievance, and I do not grieve alone, is the advertisers. They come to our houses, open our doors without warning and thrust in their heads, voices and their bills; or they ask for the lady of the house and calmly wait for her to prepare to see them. Failing in all this they send in a sealed note or telegram to arouse her temper and shock her nerves. Now, there is no sense in this.

Ladies value their time and privacy.

The proper medium for advertising is in our daily paper. Let all Ardmore's ladies subscribe this New Year, and let Ardmore merchants tell us all they wish through its columns, and, for this support, our paper will, maybe, request traveling salesmen and showmen to confine their boys and bills to the streets and fences.

A. LADY, Citizen of Ardmore.

STRAYED OR STOLEN.

One gray horse about fifteen hands high, eight years old, don't know whether branded or not. Also, one sorrel stallion, branded on hip, four white feet and white face. Suitable reward will be given for information as to their whereabouts.

II. E. FOSTER, Jan 1 1894

Ardmore, I. T.

A wooly horse was one of the curiosities on the street today. He is clothed with as fine a coat of wool as is usually found on the back of a sheep and as white as the driven snow.

When you want anything in the line of fine cakes, candies or fancy confections don't forget that the cream bakery is headquarters for them. tf 12 18

The schools of the city resumed work this morning, after a weeks vacation.
